REPORT

The NSS students along with staff members visited Annai Saradha Special school on 29.10.2021. Education is a part of curriculum and also first hand experience would help the future generation to identify; handle with special needs with confidence and learn the skills needed to handle special students. This school is dedicated for the service to differently able children belonging to various age groups and is run by run.

The children were very interactive and happy. Our college student performed some activities and games to the children. Food and dresses provided to them by the student. The student gained knowledge about it and hope to contribute to it in the future. The session ended with few cultural programs by our students.
